KLV-conference 'Inspired by Uncertainty' POSTPONED TO FALL

In June 2017, the KLV-conference would take place. Due to disappointing registrations, the conference has been postponed to the autumn. You will be informed about the new date through this website and emails. Note: 1st of October is a fictional date to allow us to place this message in the event overview on the website.  The theme of the event will be 'uncertainty', because in a world where nothing is certain, everything is possible! That is why the conference got the title 'Inspired by Uncertainty'. The conference will consist of an interesting mix of plenary lectures and workshops, networking and a meetup party. You are cordially invited to join this memorable event. We look forward to your visit! Do you want to register? Please use the English registration form. With kind regards, Hans Swinkels and Jannemarie de Jonge, KLV board
For whom? All KLV members, Wageningen alumni and students. KLV members get a discount on the admission fee. Programme & Times click here Chairmen & Guest speakers, click here ♦
Friday 23 June: Afternoon workshops - first round, click here Afternoon workshops - second round, click here Speed date session with career coaches When you register for the speed date session with career coaches, you will receive many pointers on your (starting/future) career in a short time! You can ask the coaches any questions you might have about starting a career. The speed date session might benefit you, even when you have been working for quite a while already and would like help from someone 'outside'. Guided tour of the campus Has it been a while since you last visited Wageningen Campus and would you like to hear more about the interesting buildings (like Forum, Orion and Atlas) on the terrain?
